WriteUp

1. Select operation to read, write or append
2. Input some strings in the file
3. If read check whether the file exists or not if exists
    then read all the lines and print it in the console else if
    write

 if file exists
    then override the all-previous content
 else
    add lines to the file
 else if
    append

 if file exists
    then add lines to the code